No declarations of interest were made by Members in respect of the item appearing on the agenda.

24/19 HONORARY FREEMAN AND FREEWOMEN

Further to Minute Nos. 232/18 and 13/19, the Chairman summarised the outstanding achievements of Mrs P Collins and Mrs P Hicks in terms of their fundraising for local causes and organisation of events in the village and Captain V Lucas RN DL in terms of his prominent position in civic and public life in Cambridgeshire, his military achievements and his provision of the Manor House for local events.

It was therefore moved by the Chairman, seconded by Councillor Willis and unanimously that Pat Collins and Pam Hicks be made Honorary Freewomen and Captain Victor Lucas RN DL an Honorary Freeman of the Parish of Warboys in accordance with Section 249(5) of the Local Government Act 1972.

RESOLVED

The Chairman presented framed scrolls of the award to each of the recipients.

Mrs Hicks responded on behalf of both herself and Mrs Collins in explaining how they had become involved in fund raising for good causes in Warboys and also elsewhere for cancer relief.

Captain Lucas referred to the depth of community spirit in Warboys and how both he and his wife had been delighted to help in promoting Warboys and supporting local events.

All of the recipients thanked the Parish Council for the honour conferred upon them.

There being no further business, the meeting was declared closed.

Chairman.
